“Turning the Tide: Strategically Navigating the Challenges of Serving Black and Brown Students, Faculty, and Staff in Community Colleges”

The National Council on Black American Affairs is a council of the American Association of Community Colleges (AACC). The Southern Region Annual Fall Conference aims to support NCBAA’s shared values of recognizing collegial sharing of information and ideas; opening access to higher education for the underserved; embracing the diversity of people, ideas, and learning styles; and fostering teaching excellence.
